Collecting employee information

Whilst the majority of employee information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the Data Protection Legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing employee data

We hold employee data for the time you are employed at a school in the Trist for set periods after you have left. We will not keep personal data any longer than is required to fulfil our legal obligations. This applies to paper records and as well as data held on computer systems. The Trust uses Capita SIMS as its management information system.

The length of time we keep data depends on the type of information and if they are any requirements from external bodies such as Department for Education or HM Revenue and Customs to keep it for a set number of years. Where there are no legal time limits we follow best practice provided by the Information and Records Management Society (<http://irms.org.uk>). Further information is available in the Trust's Data Retention Policy.

Type of data	Retention Period	Action at end of retention period
Appointment of new staff	On personnel file Termination + 6 years	Secure disposal Deletion from SIMS and backup
Unsuccessful applicants paperwork	Date of appointment of successful candidate + 6 months	Secure disposal Deletion from computer systems and backup

DBS Checks recorded on single central record	Termination + 1 year	Deletion from computer systems and backup
Maternity Pay Records	Current year + 3 years	Secure disposal

Who do we share employee information with?

We will not share information about you with third parties without your consent unless the law allows us to. We are required, by law, to routinely pass on some of this personal data to:

- our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- HM Revenue and Customs
- Local Government Pension Scheme
- Teachers' Pensions

We may be required from time to time provide information to other agencies based on statutory provision

- Office for National Statistics
- Immigration Service
- Public Health England
- Police
- The Courts
- Health and Safety Executive

Information requested by third parties for an employer's reference for mortgages and property rental will only be provided out where your explicit consent has been provided.

Why we share employee information?

We share information with the Department of Education and other agencies of central and local government on a statutory basis.

Data collection requirements

The majority of data is collected on behalf of the DfE and the requirement for the Trust to collect this data is The Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (No.2) (England) Regulations 2007 (Education Act 2005).
